Difficulty:

Procedure:

Prepare the fragments out of CH and T.

The fragment

Step 1:
Thread the line through both holes on 1x CH.
Start with the outer hole in the dimple.

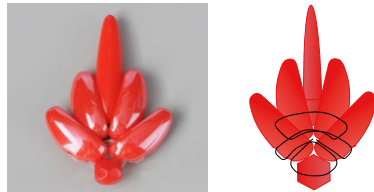

Step 2:
String the outer holes of 2 new CH with the dimples facing each other.

Step 3:
Thread the line through the second hole in the CH. String 1x T. Thread the line through the second hole of the opposite CH.

Step 4:
Thread the line through the lower hole
of both CH.

Step 5:
Thread the line through both holes of 1 new CH.
Start from the middle of the dimple.

Step 6:
Connect it with the lower hole in the first CH.
String 1x FPB. Thread the line through the lower hole of the last CH. Tie off the line and thread it through the holes in the CH.

The stringing

Step 7:
String 1x R, 2x FPB and 1x R at the beginning of the wire. Create a loop.
Thread the beginning of the wire back through. Crimp the R. Cut off the end of the wire about 2 cm behind the R.

Step 8:
String a further 2x R onto the wire.

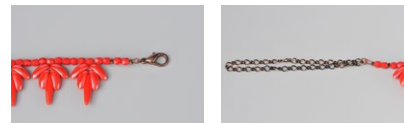

The large necklace

String the necklace on a ca 60 cm long piece of wire.

Step 9:
String FPB next to the 17 fragments.
String 4x FPB between them.

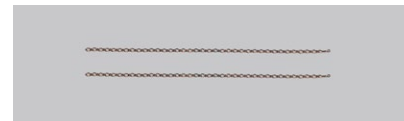

Step 10:
Attach the carabiner to the left-hand end of the necklace using a ring and the 16 cm long adjusting chain at the other end.

The small necklace

String it on a wire of about 35 cm.

Step 11:
Snip off 2x 20 cm adjusting chains.
When creating the loop from the wire,
thread it through a link in the chain.
You can adjust the length of the necklace.

Step 12:
String FPB next to 5 fragments.
String 4x FPB between them.

Step 13:
String 2x FPB, 1x R, 2x FPB and 1x R after the strung fragments. Create a loop.
Thread the end of the wire back.
Crimp the R. Cut off the wire. Don't forget to thread on the chain link in the small necklace.

Step 14:
Connect carabiners at the ends
of the chains using rings.

The earrings

Step 15:
Create a fragment according to Steps 1-5,
but without the FPB. Thread a 6 mm ring through the gap next to the knot.
Use a 4mm ring to connect the earring hook.
